

This collection of essays originated in the context of the international symposium on 'Campus Design – academic and corporate developments' hosted by ETH Zurich's Institute for Urban Design on 18 May 2006.

The portraits preceding each essay were taken at the symposium by Roman Keller. The video stills on page 104 and 108 were transmitted via video link from the parallel event held at SHARE Boston in Cambridge, MA. The portrait on page 52 was taken at the follow-up conference 'Competitive Campuses', which was hosted from 13 to 15 June 2007 by the NTNU in Trondheim and organised in collaboration with ETH Zurich's Institute for Urban Design and Sasaki Associates in Boston.
